

LOUISVILLE YOUTH ORCHESTRA

MARCH 25 — PRODUCTION SHEET

MUSICIANS: Serenade Orchestra with Mr. Dixon

NAME OF ACTIVITY: Assisted Living/Nursing Home Tour

WHAT IS THIS? A musical morning performing for adults with extra needs in 2 back-to-back concerts

DATE: Saturday, March 25, 2023

TIMING: 9:40 AM to 11:50 AM

FIRST LOCATION: Altenheim Senior Health Care Community, 936 Barret Ave, Louisville map

SECOND LOCATION: Day Spring, 1522 Baxter Ave, Louisville map

SPECIAL NOTE: For the safety of their residents, masks and temperature checks are required at the first performance venue. Please bring your own mask.

CHAIRS, STANDS: Bring a folding stand. Students who play violin, viola, or bass will perform standing up. Chairs will be provided for the cellists. Please inform us if you cannot perform standing and need accommodations.

DRESS: Wear all black. However, it does not need to be as dressy as formal concert attire.

TRANSPORTATION: Parents/guardians are responsible for transporting students to both locations. Please note that parking is limited at both locations. Consider carpooling if you know other Serenade Orchestra families.

MEALS OR RECEPTIONS: None. You might want to bring a snack/water for travel time.
